Licence fees for the use of SN documents in in-house networks

For the permission to save SN documents in internal company networks and for duplication, yearly licence fees are to be paid by the Licensee, for which Beuth Verlag will issue an invoice. The licence fees charged are dependent on the number of SN documents which are saved and on the number of staff members. If these parameters change, the Licensor can adjust the licence fee accordingly. The Licensee is obliged to provide the Licensor with an annual status update. After termination of the agreement, it shall be ensured that network access to these standards/technical rules is no longer possible. The licence is granted exclusively for in-house purposes. The Licensee is obliged to take all measures that are technically possible and necessary to prevent misuse, in particular unauthorized duplication and distribution of the standards/technical rules. To this end, the Licensee shall instruct its employees accordingly. The Licensee shall also ensure that unauthorized access to the standards/technical rules is excluded. Printouts shall be marked with a reproduction notice „Licensed for: company, site“ if there is no electronic stamp printed by Beuth Verlag GmbH. The Licensee is not entitled to transfer any rights or obligations under this agreement to third parties.

In case of network use, we will send you our offer for this.

The electronic SN documents will be used as follows (please check/fill out):

- at a single work station Number of SN documents: _____
- in a network Number of employees¹: _____

¹ Total number of employees at the sites from which the standards are to be accessed.
